

SUNG-HO JO

Sung-Ho Jo, born in Seoul in 1985, is a media artist based in Germany and Korea. His work centres on language and explores linguistic landscapes at the intersection of communication, media, and the nonverbal. His practice navigates between art, design, publishing, and research, shaping poetic and relational encounters through the medium of language. Jo's interdisciplinary approach unfolds multifaceted perspectives on language, weaving dialogues that encompass cultural and historical contexts across diverse media and genres.
